BY-LAWS

OF THE

WOMAN'S READING CLUB.

ARTICLE I.

NAME AND OBJECT.

This organization shall be known as THE WOMAN'S READING CLUB of Fort Wayne.

The object of this club shall be the study of History, Literature and Art, and the general intellectual and social culture of its members.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 1st. The number of active members shall be limited to thirty-two. All names of candidates for membership shall be presented to the Secretary, in writing When vacancies occur a list of these candidates shall be announced two weeks before they are to be voted upon. From the list thus presented each member shall be entitled to a vote, by ballot, for a candidate. A majority of the votes of the active members of the club shall be necessary for her election. If there is no election on the first ballot the succeeding ballots shall be confined to the three candidates having the largest number of votes, until there is an election.

Sec. 2. A member who is absent from three consecutive club meetings without sending a written excuse to the Secretary on or before the date of the fourth meeting, will be considered as desiring to withdraw from the club, and her name will be taken from the list, the Secretary notifying said member to that effect.

Sec. 3. Any member may bring a friend not a resident of the city, to any regular meeting.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. The officers of the club shall consist of a President, a Secretary, who shall also act as treasurer, and a Program Committee of three members.

Sec. 2. These officers shall be elected at the annual business meeting in March; the President and Secretary to enter upon their respective duties at the close of the working year. The Program Committee shall immediately assume the duties of their office.

Sec. 3. The duties of the Program Committee shall be to prepare and to have printed the program for the following year, and to distribute the same four weeks before the first meeting. The drawing for dates shall be two weeks after the annual meeting. If, for any acceptable reason a member cannot perform the work arranged for her, the Program Committee shall arrange the work for that day.

ARTICLE IV.

MEETINGS.

Sec. 1. The club year shall begin the second Tuesday of October and end the middle of May, the meetings to be held fortnightly at half past two o'clock.

Sec. 2. The place for each meeting shall be announced at the previous meeting. If for any reason a hostess shall change the time and place of meeting, she shall notify each member of such change.

ARTICLE. V.

All necessary expenses shall be divided equally among the members of the club. There shall be an annual fee of $1.50 for each member, payable at the first meeting in October.

ARTICLE VI.

QUORUM.

Twelve members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VII.

These by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting provided a written notice of the intended amendment be given the secretary at a previous meeting.

BY-LAWS

OF THE

———o———

ARTICLE I.

NAME AND OBJECT.

This organization shall be known as THE WOMAN'S READING CLUB, of Fort Wayne.

The object of this club shall be the study of History, Literature and Art, and the general intellectual and social culture of its members.

ARTICLE II.

SEC. 1. The number of active members shall be limited to thirty-two. All names of candidates for membership shall be presented to the Secretary, in writing. When vacancies occur a list of these candidates shall be announced two weeks before they are to be voted upon. From the list thus presented each member shall be entitled to a vote, by ballot, for a candidate. A majority of the votes of the active members of the club shall be necessary for her election. If there is no election on the first ballot, the succeeding ballots shall be confined to the three candidates having the largest number of votes until there is an election.

SEC. 2. A member who is absent for three consecutive club meetings without sending a written excuse to the Secretary on or before the date of the fourth meeting, will be considered as desiring to withdraw from the club, and her name will be taken from the list, the Secretary notifying said member to that effect.

SEC. 3. Any member may bring a friend not a resident of the city to any regular meeting.

ARTICLE III.

SEC. 1. The officers of the club shall consist of a President, a Secretary, who shall also act as Treasurer, and a Program Committee of three members.

SEC. 2. These officers shall be elected at the annual business meeting in March; the President and Secretary to enter upon their respective duties at the close of the working year. The Program Committee shall immediately assume the duties of their office.

SEC. 3. The duties of the Program Committee shall be to prepare and to have printed the program for the following year, and to distribute the same four weeks before the first meeting. The drawing for dates shall be two weeks after the annual meeting. If, for any acceptable reason, a member cannot perform the work arranged for her, the Program Committee shall arrange the work for that day.

MEETINGS.

SEC. 1. The club year shall begin the second Tuesday of October and end the middle of May, the meetings to be held fortnightly at half past two o'clock.

SEC. 2. The place for each meeting shall be announced at the previous meeting. If for any reason the hostess shall change the time and place of meeting, she shall notify each member of such change.

ARTICLE V.

All necessary expenses shall be divided equally among the members of the club. There shall be an annual fee of $1.50 for each member, payable at the first meeting in October.

ARTICLE VI.

Twelve members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VII.

These by-laws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting, provided a written notice of the intended amendment be given the Secretary at a previous meeting.
